Case No.

DECLARATION OF DAVID PLOTTS
IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS'
MOTION FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

1 I, David Plotts, HEREBY DECLARE AS FOLLOWS:

2 1. I am a resident of Stayton, Oregon. Except for the facts stated on
3 information and belief, all of facts set forth herein are known to me personally, and
4 if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

5 2. My wife and I have been planning to attend the 2008 Olympic Games
6 for the past seven years. We knew that this would be the only time in our lives that
7 we would be able both to afford to attend the Games and have the time and
8 flexibility to do so. In order to get the complete Olympic experience, we wanted to 9 attend both the athletic events as well as the Opening Ceremony.

10 3. After being unable to secure tickets to the Opening Ceremony from 11 CoSport, in November of 2007, I went onto the Internet to search for available
12 tickets to the 2008 Olympic Opening Ceremony. I entered the terms "Opening
13 Ceremony tickets" into the Google search engine. On the first results page, I found
14 the Website www.beijingticketing.com ("Beijing Ticketing"), which claimed to sell
15 tickets to the 2008 Olympics. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of 16 the Beijing Ticketing Website.

17 4. The Beijing Ticketing website contained several seemingly official
18 Olympic logos, such as the red human figure logo designed specifically for the 19 2008 Beijing Games, and appeared to me to be a source of legitimate tickets for the 20 2008 Olympics.

21 5. The site claimed to have exactly the types of tickets that I was looking 22 for—tickets to the 2008 Olympic Opening Ceremony. The tickets were offered for 23 $1,450 per ticket.

24 6. On November 27, 2007, I placed my order for two tickets to the 25 Opening Ceremony. I entered my contact information as well as my credit card
26 information in the spaces provided on the site. Beijing Ticketing did not ask for,
27 and I did not provide, my photograph or passport details.
28

1 7. Shortly after placing my order, I received an email from Beijing
2 Ticketing stating, "Thanks for choosing our services to book your tickets online.
3 We have received the payment and your tickets will be dispatched within 2-4 four
4 weeks prior to the event date."

5 8. Months went by and I did not receive any tickets from Beijing
6 Ticketing. On June 30, 2008, when I had still not received anything from Beijing
7 Ticketing, I emailed them at sales@beijingticketing.com requesting that someone
8 from the organization contact me via telephone to discuss my order.

9 9. Hearing nothing, I emailed Beijing Ticketing again on July 6, 2008.
10 This time Beijing Ticketing responded, stating that, "All tickets will be dispatched
11 to you by 12pm, 21st July 2008 by FedEx."

12 10. After receiving this email, however, I became further convinced that
13 Beijing Ticketing was a fraudulent company as Opening Ceremony tickets require
14 registration with a passport photo and passport information and I had not provided
15 such information to Beijing Ticketing.

16 11. I sent Beijing Ticketing a series of emails informing them of this fact
17 and requesting information about my order, however, I have received no response.
18 Attached as Exhibit B is a copy of my email correspondence with Beijing
19 Ticketing.

20 12. I have also attempted to contact Beijing Ticketing by phone at the 21 number provided on their Website, however, I have been unable to reach anyone
22 with whom to discuss this issue.

23 13. At this point, I have not nor do I expect to receive any tickets from 24 Beijing Ticketing.

26
27 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the 28 foregoing is true and correct.

1 Executed on this 17th day of July, 2008 at Stayton, Oregon.

> My wife and I purchased Opening Ceremonies tickets from your company back in November. We spent nearly $3000 on the tickets and you haven't yet obtained our passport information or photos. These are necessary for the tickets to be registered with BOCOG so that we can presumably use them in Beijing. Since you haven't contacted us yet, I can only assume that you're company is a fraudulent company. I have read literally hundreds of comments about your company online and I have no reason to believe that my conclusions regarding your company are untrue.
> We have contacted the local television station and they are doing an expose on your company tomorrow. Furthermore, we are contacting our credit card company, the local police, and the FBI. Please consider this as a warning to your company that we will not be defrauded and go quietly.

> Opening Ceremonies tickets require registration with passport photo and passport information. Your company does not have either of this information. If the tickets are dispatched to us, how will we be able to use them if they haven't been registered with BOCOG? The registration deadline is July 14th.

> I've been in contact tonight with another customer/victim and we're piecing together what has happened thus far with each of our ticketing fiascos. I've got to hand it to you guys: the scam you came up with is the most legitimate looking scam I've ever seen. Here's the bad news, the Oregon Attorney General and the FBI are now on your case.
> I've told you repeatedly that I've done my homework and I'll know if the tickets I get are legitimate. The gentleman that I spoke with tonight said that he received an email from your company stating that the tickets that he will receive are sponsor tickets and thus don't require a passport photo or passport information. I have not received such an email. He then emailed the official Olympic ticketing office in Beijing and asked if that it was in fact true that sponsor tickets don't have to be registered. The answer he received: SPONSOR TICKETS DO HAVE TO BE REGISTERED WITH PASSPORT INFO AND PASSPORT PHOTOS! What this means is that whatever tickets that you send on July 21st will likely be counterfeit. I know it, you know it, and I know that you know it.
> You have no idea of the pain, anger, and frustration that you have caused. We've been planning our trip to the Olympics for 7 years. You have robbed us of what was sure to be our brightest memory. We are frustrated, hurt, angry, and WE WON'T GO AWAY. You, and your parent company, won't soon forget the pain you've caused us.

If your company and the Opening Ceremonies tickets are legitimate, you need to be in contact with your customers NOW to get their passport information so that it can be submitted to BOCOG.
